Description

Here we have a small antique pine double wardrobe in lovely condition throughout. It is an eye-catching piece of furniture due to its decorative features. It dates from 1910 and is shown here in the bare wood having recently been stripped of its original paint. The double doors open to the original wooden hanging pegs but can be removed if you wish and replaced with a new brass hanging rail, which is included in the price. There is also a full width drawer at the bottom. We could also shelve it for you if you wish to use it as a storage cupboard - please let us know of your requirements. This is a one piece item, so please check your access measurements. Height 74", width 47.5", depth 23", internal depth 17.5"

Internal Ref: R2255C
