Description

A good early Victorian period round table in rosewood. Often referred to as a dining, center, supper or breakfast table. It is well made with attractive rosewood veneers on to a solid mahogany carcass. The round top can be tilted up if desired and it sits on a base with a central column which spreads to a tri-form base terminating in carved scrolled feet. This table would sit 4 comfortably and 6 at a squeeze. It is offered for sale in very good condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Diameter 130cms Height 75cms
