Description

This stunning SOLID SILVER GOBLET was made by the well-known and sought after silversmiths of Mappin & Webb in 1905. Standing on a raised base with knobbed stem, the bowl is fabulously embossed with flowers and scrolls and the interior of the bowl retains its original vibrant gilt coating. There is also a blank cartouche which could be used to personalise this lovely antique. In superb condition despite being over 110 years old, this excellent antique goblet would make a wonderful gift or would enhance any collection. *****
