Description

A rare George III solid silver BOUGIE BOX, with shaped hinged 'door' to the top and ornate cast hinged 'buckle' to the side which is either retained by a small knob or hinges outwards. Marked with maker's mark only: "R.G". A Bougie-Box is a container for a long coiled wax taper. This taper is fed up through the hole in the top of the lid, for burning, and then extinguished with use of the shaped hinged door.
