Description

A long narrow antique pine table dating from 1920, with elegant French-style tapered legs. Originally painted, now in the bare wood having just been stripped. Good condition, with some age related marks giving some rustic charm. A very nice breakfast room or dining room table that would be ideal if you're short of space to accommodate an average width table. Price includes our professional wax polishing service. If you would like the legs or table top painted, or all of the piece painted, then please contact us for a quote and for more information on our colours. It can also be bought as it is for £400 - Just let us know how you'd like us to finish it. Height: 30.5", leg room height, 24", length: 72.5", width 28"
