Description

Portrait of a French Naval Officer, Vice Admiral Thomasset This is a large painting oil on canvas, it is presented as an Oval in a superb Rectangular carved gilt Frame The subject is Vice Admiral Thomasset, in French Naval Dress Uniform, a man of good looks wearing his medals proudly in an informal pose Vice Admiral Thomasset was the Flag Officer of Dévastation from 1st of August 1882 until 14th of November 1882 There is some information on the subject on the back of the painting which tells of his wife and other ancestry, also on the back at the bottom of the frame, there is a newspaper cutting from 1817, it is difficult to read but it refers to our handsome officer. The Painting is offered in very good (probably restored) condition a wonderfully executed piece The frame is 39" high, 24" wide, the Oval is 29" high FN96 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option.
