Description

Impressive and very rare matching pair of Art Deco wall lights. The two-tone metal case, chrome and copper works beautifully with the central frosted glass panel. These lights look superb switched on or off and not something you're going to see again anytime soon. These lights are totally authentic and date to the 1930s, sourced in Belgium we believe these original came from a cinema in Antwerp. Condition is very good, no damage to note and just the minimal signs of age, more notably to the backs.
