Description

A superb quality William IV mahogany two door chiffonier. This chiffonier dating to circa 1835 has been constructed to the finest quality with stunning flame mahogany veneers having a raised tier with central panelled back supported by turned spindles with tulip carved base. The rectangular top being of solid mahogany having a moulded edge sits over a flame veneered frieze above two glass panelled doors flanked by mahogany shaped columns with carved tops and bases which open to reveal a removable shelf. Raised on a plinth base supported by four delicately carved tulip bun feet this attractive chiffonier is truly of the best quality with a stunning colour and a fabulous choice of veneers used.
