Description

A lovely quality of small proportions (3 feet wide) leather topped mahogany library table dating to circa 1840. This very good quality table has been made with a finely grained mahogany which has mellowed over the years to give a lovely hue. The shaped top having an inset gilt tooled leather has a crossbanded edge sitting above a moulded frieze on shaped end supports. Each support having a flame mahogany inset panel and carvings to the top and base united by a carved and reeded stretcher. Raised on reeded bun feet with recessed brass castors this quality table is in excellent condition having been restored using traditional methods boasting a very good colour and patina. This antique table is extremely well made and will make a stunning addition to any home. Dimensions: Width: 36 1/2 inches - 92.5cm Height: 30 inches - 76cm Depth: 24 inches - 61cm
