Description

A very rare solid satinwood Campaign Chest of Drawers made from figured solid satinwood including the internal draw linings. This chest is made in two parts to be transported on a pack mule or carried. It has brass mounts to add strength to the structure. The drawers have original flush fitting military handles and ebony inlaid shield escutcheons for the locks. The sides are fitted with brass carrying handles. There is also an inlaid brass name plate inscribed F.L.O' Neal, the owner. It stands on small turned bun feet.

Internal Ref: 130
