Description

A spectacular family sized Victorian silver teapot. This fabulous and rare example was assayed at the sought after English provincial office of Newcastle. The rounded body has a fluted spout with serpentine shape. The ornate reeded handle has an applied cast panel with shell and floral motifs and two ivory heat diffusers. The base has four pad feet with motifs echoing the handle. The rim is fluted and the lid has a fine concealed hinge reflecting the quality and finish of the piece. There is a hallmarked silver knob to the lid. This good capacity teapot pours well and holds 8 - 10 standard size cups of tea. A superb and practical family sized teapot with the unusual distinction of a Newcastle hallmark. P&P contribution :- £16.00 UK £32.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no holes, dents or splits. There is the odd small blemish to the body and a small amount of rippling to the knob, commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable, full marks to body, part marks to handle, lid and knob. Maker :- John Walton. Date :- Newcastle 1847. Spout tip to handle outer :- 26.5 cms. Body diameter :- 17 cms. (widest point). Height :- 16.5 cms. (to top of handle). N...
