Description

A charming boxed silver set for afternoon tea, dating from the reign of George V. This delightful collection, comprises sifter spoon, butter knife and preserve spoon. The handles are pierced and have leaf and thistle motifs. It is most unusual to find these sets, still complete and in the original box and they would make a lovely and practical addition to the tea table. P&P contribution £8.00 UK £15.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no damage. The exterior and interior of the box are good, with just some loss to the silk area by the hinge. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- James Dixon & Sons. Date :- Sheffield 1913. Length :- Sifter spoon :- 11.75 cms. Butterknife :- 14 cms. Preserve spoon :- 12.5 cms.
