Description

An impressive carved oak hall stand with a bevelled mirror back and wooden turned coat hooks, the middle section has a two door cupboard supported by carved baluster legs on a plinth base, there is hardly a piece of this impressive hall stand that hasn't got carving, a real statement piece. The mirror has some age related spots but adds to the whole character and patina of this charming piece of furniture. All measurements are done to the widest point. Here at Sinclairs Antiques and Interiors we do our utmost best to ensure all our items are described and photographed to show any flaws or damage such as shrinkage splits, losses or lifts to veneer, repairs or marks. However giving the age and the fact that each piece will have had years of polishing to create its own individual character we cannot describe every minor mark separately and therefore recommend you either visit our warehouse or request extra photographs. We offer a 7 day money back guarantee if you are unhappy with...
