Description

Exhibition quality 19th century Victorian burr walnut tea table. Beautiful design solid walnut base with turned stretcher across the base and original castors. The top with quarter veneered burr walnut with a carved Greek key moulding to the edge. The top swivels round and opens up as a tea table and is similarly veneered inside in burr walnut. The table has obviously not been used open very much as the inside is very much darker than the outside. The table is in first class condition and is a beautiful mellow golden colour. Outstanding quality, they don't come much better !! SIZE; 39" wide by 19 1/2" from front to back by 29 1/2" high CIRCA; 1860 - 1870
