Description

This is an antique bijouterie table, dating to the reign of George V, English c.1915. Beautifully made in select mahogany with a polished finish. The case is finished in thick, beaded glazing complete with working lock and key. Lined with a pale olive green velvety cloth bearing some minor marks. A sinuous, flared shaped apron mounts the case. Raised on the most elegant, slender cabriole legs terminating in delicately formed pad feet. A superior example with solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
