Description

Here we have a large antique pine larder/ storage cupboard that has recently been stripped to the bare wood. It is excellent condition throughout and is now ready waxing or painting. It dates from 1920 and still has the lovely original external hinges, vents and lock and key. The top section is the bread cupboard with two glazed doors, below are two vented doors that open to four deep food drawers beside a space with three shelves. Each drawer has the lovely original cup handles. All the doors open fully because they are mounted on the attractive external hinges - a great feature when accessing the cupboard!
