Description

A very attractive Victorian pine linen press, in excellent condition for its age -It really is a lovely example of this time. The top has two arched panelled doors that open onto three shelves which aren't fitted so can be removed if necessary. The doors have some elegant carving designs, with a single wooden knob. The lock and key are in good working order. Below, are three full width drawers each with wooden knobs. It has recently been stripped of its original paint and is now in the bare wood ready for waxing or painting. Height 60", width 36", depth 17.5"
