Description

We are offering for sale a pair of oil paintings by the artist Tom Seymour. - These extremely well painted Waterfall pictures are unique indeed they would make perfect interior design pieces for their unusual diamentions work well in that the vertical height enhances the visual effect of cascading water pouring down over the rocks and through the valley gorge. - ARTISTS SIGNATURE Tom Seymour has signed the left hand painting in the lower left hand corner and the right hand one in the right. - The paintings depict streams swelled by either snow or rain, tumbling down from the high mountains over rocky cliffs and through various waterfalls, creating misty spray. These are tall, narrow paintings that the artist has used to great effect and has achieved a great sense of distance. - THOMAS SEYMOUR, (Tom) Obviously found a ready market for his work without the need to exhibit, because we have found no reference to him in any of the art reference books, which draw their information from exhibition listings. He specialised in landscape and coastal works, the landscape mostly scenes in Scotland and North Wales. As we have found no reference to a person of this name so far, nor ...
