Description

This wonderful example of an early, William IV, solid silver Christening Mug has a handsome fluted shaped body and a flared rim. It stands on an attractive pedestal foot and has a lovely large scroll handle to one side. The Mug has no embossing or engraving. The lovely fluid shape is perfectly balanced and feels nice in the hand. It is in lovely original condition for the age. A superb piece of the finest quality associated with a fine maker. Hallmarks for the London Assay Office and a date mark for 1834 are clearly visible on the base of the mug, along with the lion passant indicating Sterling Silver and maker's marks for Edward, Edward Junior, John & William Barnard. Measurements: Height to top of handle: 9 cm approx. Width including handle: 10.3 cm approx. Weight: 114.22 grams approx
