Description

This is a super antique Victorian Scottish sterling silver bowl with lid hallmarked for Edinburgh 1858 with the silversmiths mark for Edwin Millidge. It has two crests on one side - one with the Bruce clan motto 'Fuimus' which means 'We have been' and the other with the Clan Gardyne motto 'Cruciata Cruce Junguntur' which means 'Troubles are connected with the cross'. It measures 6 1/2" (16.5 cms) tall x 6 1/4" (16 cms) across including the handles x 4 3/4" (12 cms). It weighs 427 grams and is in excellent condition (any marks you can see are just reflections). Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
