Description

HIGGS & EVANS, LONDON: A really good quality late 18th century BRACKET CLOCK in fine working order and of desirable small size. The ebonised case with its brass-edged pad top and cast brass handle, has inner brass slip frames to both doors and side panels and it is supported on cast brass feet emanating from a brass plinth. The original 8-day verge movement strikes and repeats hours on a bell with "Strike/Silent" the the arch and date aperture to the engraved and silvered dial. Finely engraved backplate. A gorgeous clock! Just 13.5ins (35cms) high. This clock with its original high quality verge movement features special pallets (which allow the crown wheel to 'escape') producing rare "silent" ticking.

Internal Ref: 1500
