Description

An antique pine dresser base / cupboard with a 'gallery-back'. There are two shallow drawers above two deep drawers to the left and a cupboard on the right each with its original brass handles and key plates. The wavy edged gallery up-stand is fixed on the top and makes an ideal space for pictures, ornaments, a mirror or toiletries (depending on where you use the cupboard). These cupboards also work well in bathrooms as well as kitchen/dining rooms. It dates from the 1920's and has recently been stripped to the bare wood - in very nice condition throughout. The price includes our professional wax polishing service. Total height: 41", work-surface height: 30.5", width: 42", depth: 21"
