Description

A good quality antique William and Mary Style walnut cocktail cabinet dating to the early 1900's. This quality cocktail cabinet has been constructed in the William and Mary style having a pair of walnut bookmatch veneered doors with crossbanded edges and decorative fretted brass hinges and escutcheon. The pair of doors open to reveal a newly lined nubuck interior with glass shelves and base for safe storage of bottles and glass. The top sits over a crossgrain moulded edge and oak lined hand cut dovetailed drawers with crossbanded edge and cockbead surrounding mould. The drawer has a central lock with escutcheon and brass fretted bat-wing swan necked handles. This attractive cocktail cabinet has a shaped apron which is supported by six turned legs and united at the base by a shaped stretcher raised on bun feet. In excellent condition having been restored using traditional methods boasting a lovely warm honey walnut colour. A very attractive and well proportioned drinks cabinet for the home. Dimensions: Width: 36 1/2 inches - 92.5cm Height: 62 1/2 inches - 159cm Depth: 17 1/4 inches - 44cm
