Description

A charming antique Victorian mirror with hanging rail. The rectangular bevelled mirror plate is enclosed by a walnut frame with a carved pediment to the top. Below the mirror is a shelf with shaped supports holding a turned hanging rail. This mirror would make a great bathroom mirror for holding towels or it could be used in a hall or bedroom for hanging clothes etc. Construction/Wood: Walnut Condition Report: Good patina to the frame. Marks and scuffs commensurate with age. A large scratch to the mirror plate at the bottom (see photo), and some light foxing/loss of silvering in places. General marks and wear commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 60cm Depth: 20cm Height: 124cm
