Description

An attractive Eastern European antique pine dresser dating from around 1915. The top section has two glazed doors that open to two shelves inside. The base (which separates from the top for delivery) has two small drawers, each with their original porcelain knobs, over the panelled door cupboard that opens to a single shelf. It is in the bare wood having recently been stripped of its original paint, and in lovely condition for its age. The price includes our professional wax polishing service. If you would like us to paint it for you, please contact us for a quote. Height: 80", width: 39", depth: 17.5"

Internal Ref: S1203D
