Description

17th / 18th C. Dutch Slipware Strawberry Jar. This is a late 17th or early 18th century earthenware strawberry jar with slip decoration. The has a little handle at the back with on the body a slip decoration of letters or initials: J, v.d. W., most probably the initials of the owner of the strawberry jar. The jar has a tapered bottom ending on a stand ring. In the bottom is a hole pierced for letting water out after cleaning the fruit. An old collectors i.d. is still visible on the bottom of the jar.
