Description

19th Century Shabby Oak and Pine Centre Table This is a very attractive piece, the base is made in solid Oak, and the top is made from 4 planks of 1.5" thick pine it does come in two to aid transport. The table has 7 Turned Oak legs on an H floor stretcher this has been left in its original shabby painted greyish finish. The solid planked top has had many colours of paint in its long life, now mostly worn off but leaving a splendid look, and this has has a light polish The table though old is very sturdy, the wood is beautifully dry and the old paint has a rustic look, a fantastic addition to a modern entrance hall or shop The table is 30" wide, it is 64" long, it is 31" high THT24
