Description

An antique Waltham full hunter pocket watch with history. The watch has a stem-winding movement, grade 610, which is working nicely. The movement is signed and the serial number 20,284,713 which dates it back to 1915. The movement is beautifully damascened and the whole movement is covered by a protective hinged cover. Upon the cover is a charming inscription to a Mr D Pearson from Kirkcaldy PSA in appreciation of his services as Conductor of the Orchestra, Oct 1917. PSA stood for Pleasant Sunday Afternoon. The movement began when a business man, John Blackman who was also a member of the Ebenezer Congregational Church, found himself locked out of a Moody and Sankey Sunday afternoon meeting in the town hall. He asked around to see if he could find another young men's meeting and he was directed to the Steelhouse Lane Congregational Church where he joined with 30 other young men. John Blackman returned to West Bromwich determined to emulate the success of the popular Town Hall meeting and, with the help of some friends, gathered 120 men at the Ebenezer Church. The meetings became so popular, they had to hold them in the church rather than the school room. Th...
