Description

This superb ANTIQUE EDWARDIAN TOAST RACK has six compartments divided by an arch style frame supporting a central handle. The rack, made by the well-known silversmiths of Carrington & Co., Regent St. London in 1905, has a rectangular shaped body / base that has rounded corners and is supported by four beautiful ball feet. The toast rack has five delightfully shaped dividers resulting four toast sections and the central divider has a shaped handle on the top. This lovely toast rack has not been engraved with any family crests or initials and one end has a full set of clearly defined hallmarks. This is an exceptionally fine quality toast rack, made from heavy gauge silver, and is in superb condition and could be used as intended as a toast rack or as a superb desk top letter rack or would make a wonderful addition to any collection and would enhance any table setting.

 Condition  Used / Excellent There is no damage and there are no repairs. Some minor scuff marks to the underside. Fully Hallmarked English Sterling Silver.
