Description

Victorian Mahogany Chest of Drawers (Marsh Jones & Cribb) A superb Mahogany chest of two over three drawers, Marsh, Jones & Cribb were renowned antique furniture cabinet makers in the Victorian era. They were known for their quality craftsmanship from gothic to simple arts and crafts designs. They began as cabinet makers, ca.1850 in Leeds as Marsh & Jones of Leeds. They later expanded to Cavendish Square, London when the well-known cabinetmaker of Soho, London Henry Humphries Cribb sent his son to serve his apprenticeship with Marsh and Jones. After he had finished his apprenticeship in 1867 he was offered a partnership in the company leading to the new and well-known name by today's antique collectors, Marsh, Jones & Cribb. The Marsh Jones & Cribb Labels is situated on the back. Size 48" by 42" by 22"
