Description

This is a really good looking leather 2 seater sofa that's full of character. It's antique, roughly dating to around the 1910 period & is in excellent condition. This wing sofa has a gentle hump back, shaped wings, a deep buttoned back, newly filled feather cushions & the leather is hand tacked onto the frame. The legs are solid mahogany & have cross stretchers joining them, which give extra stability & a better look. What I like most about this piece is the great colour & the quality of the leather. There are no holes, tears, or splits in the leather. This sofa has lovely generous proportions & is very comfortable due to the generous fillings in the cushions. Please enlarge all the images, especially the one of the buttoned back. Width - 51.2", 130 cm Depth - 31.5", 80 cm Height - 39.4", 100 cm Seat height - 19.3", 49 cm
