Description

A Breton High Back Carved Oak Box Settle The Settle is intricately carved, the back has a very jolly scene in the centre panel, it is set outside a hostelry and shows a young lady seeing off a gentleman who seems to have had rather too much to drink he is sitting back to front on his horse. There is a Breton wheel of life on the top of the bench and on either side of the centre carving. The box section of the settle has 4 panels carved with heads on the front, and there is also carving on the top of the seat, the sides and a very deeply carved plinth at the floor. Taking into consideration the age of this piece it is in very good condition, the plinth at the base has minor chipping at the back, a wonderful piece with excellent patina. The settle is 58" high at the back and 60" wide, it is 19" deep, and the seat is 22" high HT74 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option.
