Description

A very good quality early 1900's antique walnut chest on stand. This quality chest of drawers having good proportions has a crossbanded bookmatch veneered top with a moulded edge over four solid lined walnut drawers with crossbanded edges, each fitted with solid swan neck handles with matching escutcheons and central lock. The sides having canted corners with the whole sitting on a removable walnut stand with shaped apron and cabriole legs terminating on pad feet. This very good quality and well-portioned chest at just over 2 feet wide is constructed of solid timber showing its age dating to the early 1900's with solid linings. In excellent condition having been restored using traditional methods whilst retaining a lovely warm mellow walnut colour. A very practical chest of drawers that can be used in most rooms of the house. Dimensions: Width: 23 inches - 58.5cm Height: 35 1/4 inches - 89.5cm Depth: 18 1/2 inches - 47cm
