Description

A stunning little box made from English sterling silver, both the base and lid. The top of the gently domed lid is smothered with the prettiest pink guilloché enamel, the most sought-after colour; it has a bright patina showcasing the engine turned decoration below. The silver is fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1928 together with the makers initials for Horton and Allday. Excellent condition, measuring 1 5/8" in diameter x 1" tall.
