Description

A lovely satinwood display cabinet from the Edwardian period. Of fine construction with stunning satinwood veneers onto a mahogany carcas. This cabinet is decorated with inlaid detailing throughout including geometric patterns to the cornice. The base section is further decorated with pretty floral painted swags and garlands. The top section has a central opening door (lockable , key supplied) which opens to access a shelved and lined interior (some minor stains to the lining paper). The base section has a single opening drawer and stands on long, elegant cabriole legs which are united by an under-tier, or parcel shelf. This charming cabinet is offered for sale in excellent original condition, with a wonderful colour and patina, ready to go straight into the home. It splits into two parts for ease of installation.
