Description

A very good mahogany pedestal desk from the late Victorian period by the renowned maker of Jas Shoolbred and co. Of good construction in solid mahogany and attractive mahogany veneers. There is an arrangement of one long central drawer flanked by 2 sets of 4 shorter, graduated drawers. The top is fitted with a sumptuous red leather writing surface decorated to the edges with gilt tooling. This desk is finished to the rear so could be free standing within a room if desired. Offered for sale in very good original condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops, now with a great colour and patina. Splits into 3 sections for ease of installation. Their antique desks, Victorian dining chairs and antique marquetry furniture were produced for wealthy households up to 1931. A particularly fine example of James Shoolbred antique marquetry furniture – an ornate piano by designer Henry Batley – is on display at the V & A museum, London. Established in the 1820s, James Shoolbred's Tottenham C...
