Description

A stylish pair of antique Victorian kitchen chairs or hall chairs. They have tablet back top rails and a shaped bar back. With solid seats, they stand on attractively turned front legs. Would work well as kitchen chairs or hall chairs. Construction/Wood: Pine/Fruitwood/Mahogany Condition Report: One chair solid and sturdy some slight give to other (but solid to sit on). Wear and marks commensurate with age. One chair has a few old worm holes to the back of the seat, which have been treated with worm killer as a precaution. These chairs have been stripped back and stained slightly at some point (not French polished) but still retain a good level of their original patina.
