Description

A good quality and unusual pair of antique late 19th Century chairs in walnut with acorn finials. In a Spanish colonial style, they have carved backplates with acorn finials, carved seat rails and turned legs united by cross stretchers. The seats have been newly reupholstered in a brown velour type fabric. Construction/Wood: Walnut Condition Report: Solid and sturdy frames. Good colour and patina. Newly reupholstered – would have originally had caned seats. Some stretchers have been replaced over the years, various historical mends. A few old worm holes. Dimensions: Width: 46cm Depth : 40cm Height to Seat: 48cm Overall Height: 97cm
