Description

An elegant antique Georgian mahogany dressing table mirror or toilet mirror. With figured mahogany frame, on serpentine base with three drawers, with oval mirror plate in swing frame with shaped supports, all standing on small ogee feet. In a beautifully figured mahogany with stringing. Dating from the George III period.

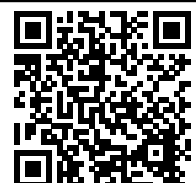

Construction: Mahogany Condition Report: This is a very charming mirror but has lots of wear and marks, old mends to the veneers and stringing missing in places. Solid and sturdy frame. Mirror plate is old but in useable condition – some small marks and slight loss of silvering. Other wear and marks commensurate with age.
