Description

A most unusual and stunning little coin purse, in the shape of a shell with beautiful repousse or embossed decoration. There is a catch to the top which is slid to one side to open the purse; once opened the interior reveals the original silk lining. The silver is fully hallmarked for London 1882, so a true Victorian example. Superb condition with a couple of minuscule little bruises commensurate with age, mentioned purely for accuracy. 2 1/4" x 2" x 1/2".
