Description

A most pleasing set of ten dining chairs presented in very good antique condition. With classic Chippendale form, this set of late Victorian revival chairs includes a pair of carvers. Delightfully weighty and strong, these chairs are suitable for regular use. Reassuringly heavy, with the carvers at 11.3kg (25lb) and the standard chairs at 8.6kg (19lb). Generous in size & offering a useful 52cm (20.5") seat height. Rising from talon & ball feet, through elegant cabriole legs; carved at the knee with foliate detailing. Desirable serpentine lower front and side rails displaying hand carving. Classic seat backs, profusely detailed, with fine splats. Extravagant top rail terminating with Chippendale flaired ears and subtle three-hole Butler's grasp. Grand pair of carvers with well-detailed sweeping arms over hand-carved swan-neck risers. Attractive mahogany showing depth of tone, quality grain and fine colour. Comfortable seating offered - the seats' textile being a silk cotton with traditional bold stripe pattern. Seats are of the 'drop-in' type and would be straightforward to re-cover to suit any decorative taste. Of quality craftsmanship with attractive proportions. A simply lovely and pr...
