Description

A very attractive pair of 19th Century blue and white shallow dishes in the 'Columbra' pattern from the Ridgway pottery. The fluted and gadrooned rim with pierced handles surrounds a central design of stylised flowers and foliage. These antique dishes are in very good condition and the colour is a good mid blue. A charming pair of Staffordshire blue and white dishes to display on a dresser or table for decorative impact. c.1828 Width: 9.25" (23.5cm) Depth: 8.75" (22.5cm) Height: 1" (2.5cm)
