Description

This unusual and rare SOLID SILVER BOWL is of hexafoil form around a circular concave base and is supported by three superbly crafted zoomorphic scroll legs. Alternate segments of the dish are individually decorated each with different floral designs with plain segments between. The bowl was made by Horace Woodward & Co. in 1903 and is in excellent condition with very little sign of use or wear and is free from any added engravings, monograms or initials. A very unusual and rare antique which would look superb in any setting and would certainly enhance any silver collection.  Condition  Used / Excellent There is no damage and there are no repairs. One of the legs is slightly misshapen - hardly noticeable but mentioned for accuracy.
