Description

Smart pair of early C19th William IV period maple bedroom or occasional chairs in the manner of Gillows. Decorative pair of 'blonde' maple side chairs with well-carved shaped ovoid open backs with good detail. The figured pale maple timber having achieved a pleasing mellow patina and sheen. Raised on turned and carved fore-legs, the stuff-over seats benefitting from recent clean upholstery. One chair had minor evidence of historic woodworm which been treated and eradicated. Excellent strong frames in good original condition with no breaks, damage or repairs. Have design features recognised as being possibly from the workshops of the esteemed cabinet-making firm of Gillows of Lancaster and London though not marked.
