Description

Fine and decorative pair of C19th Chinoiserie lacquer cabinets-on-stands. Pair of high quality mid C19th English Chinoiserie lacquer-work cabinets on ebonised Chinese-style stands. The 'handed' cabinets each fitted a single panel door enclosing fitted interiors with graduated drawers. Cantled corner design fitted with three-quarter decorative brass gallery tops. Typical Chinoiserie fantasy landscape designs to each surface with gilded highlights. The stands of tapering square-legged form with Chinese style open-fret friezes and brackets. One cabinet with simple graduated drawers, the other with drawers fitted with lids enclosing removable trays. The drawers of both cabinets with quality cedar wood linings and fitted with brass pull knobs to the fronts. The panelled doors each fitted with locks and a key. In excellent original 'country-house' condition, minor rubbing to the ebonised loose stands, and minor wear to the lacquer work, and marks to the top surfaces commensurate with age and use. Superb pair of decorative cabinets to bring exoticism, style, credence and symmetry to a period interior. The cabinets circa 1860, the bases purpose made circa 1900....
