Description

This wonderful scent bottle has a turquoise blue guilloche enamel panel to the top of the round, hallmarked silver lid. The lid unscrews to reveal the original peg stopper. The clear glass body is cut with sunburst decorations and reeded bands to all sides. The corners and beveled adding to the quality feel. A highly attractive piece with a practical use. Postage and Packing contribution :- £10.00 UK £16.00
Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no damage to the silver or enamel and no chips or cracks to the glass. There are a few very small flea bites to the glass on the neck by the stopper. These are only noticeable with the lid removed and are commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable, slight loss to the town mark. Maker :- Turner and Simpson. Date :- Birmingham 1928. Height :- 7.5 cms. Base :- 5.5 x 5.5 cms.
