

SA498643

A stunning Edwardian silver breakfast tea set

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA498643*Date of manufacture: Edwardian

Description

A superior quality silver three piece breakfast tea set from the late Edwardian period. This extremely stylish set is beautifully crafted with stunning attention to detail, the silver being of good gauge and weight. The set comprises, breakfast teapot, milk jug and sugar bowl. All three pieces echo each other in a futuristic design having reeded bands and plinth bases with the retailers mark to the underside of each. The teapot has a concealed hinge and the lid fits flush to the body. The shaped, flat topped spout pours well and the handle and knob are in a contrasting ebony. A fabulous and usable set of high quality with the tea pot holding 1 pint or three standard sized tea cups. Postage and Packing contribution :- £20.00 UK £35.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no holes, dents or splits. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable, full marks to all. Maker :- Manoh Rhodes & Sons Ltd. Date :- London 1908 & 1909. Teapot :- Width (outside of handle to tip of spout) :- 22 cms. Depth :- 14 cms. Height (to top of knob) :- 11.5 cms. Weight :- 13.84 troy oz. (including handles and knobs). Sugar Bowl :- Width (outside of handle to outside...)

Internal Ref: ACA593

Seller Details

Andrew Cox Antiques

Norfolk United Kingdom

Tel: 07872 529197

International Tel: +44 7872 529197