Description

A pretty inlaid mahogany writing desk, or table, from the late Victorian period. Well made in mahogany in the Sheraton revival taste and of bow-ended form. Decorated throughout with satinwood banding, stringing and satinwood and ivorine inlaid floral scenes. The shaped top is fitted with a sumptuous red leather writing surface and has a fitted stationary compartment with a lift up top and a brass gallery. There is a single drawer to the table and it stands on elegant tapering legs, united by an under tier and terminating in the original castors. We have had this lovely table sympathetically repolished to a very high standard and it now has a great colour and patina. It is offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home. It is finished to the rear so could be free-standing within a room if desired.
