Description

London 1937 very unusual Art Deco period lighthouse form cut glass and English hallmarked solid silver sugar caster. Casters were made to dispense sugar over the top of food, confectionery, and drinks. With heavily cut glass, and shapely silver top, this caster is in very good condition, and sure to be a talking point. Size-6 inches high by 2.5 inches wide. Wonderful and functional gift for the collector of novelty silver or glass.
