Description

A very smart Art Deco wall clock by Kienzle. Kienzle commenced business in 1840 and continue in business today. An 8 day movement striking the half-hours and the hours with a two-tone, "ting-tang" strike. The clock strikes on rods giving a very precise, clear and melodic sound. The walnut case has a high gloss finish that contrasts beautifully with the dial and pendulum. The 9" satin silver dial has chromed numerals and chapter ring. The pendulum is also chromed. Fully serviced and ready to go straight to work. All cards accepted.
